Quarterly Newsletter
Q3.2022

Q3 Monthly Award Winners

To nominate a fellow Clark employee, go to the main C-Port page to Nominate Someone for Living Our Values. You can nominate anyone at anytime for anything that you believe demonstrates they are truly living one (or all) of our Core Values.

07 July

Chad Nelson

Value: Care & Reliable

“His commitment to training and mentoring all members of our team is not only well structured and includes great information, but the patience and Care that he exudes is absolutely so sincere.”

“Reliable best describes Chad because he hits his deadlines and commitments without excuse, he is devoted to the team and he puts the interests of others above his own every time.”

08 August

Matt Sangster

Value: Care

“...There have been times where other team members have not been able to work due to personal or health related issues and Matt without hesitation steps right up and sees how he can help out... Matt is living our values to the fullest and is always willing to assist others, even if nothing is pertaining to the project itself.”

09 September

Kenny Babinski

Value: Care

“...He went above and beyond for the Greater Midland Community Center to make sure it was a successful groundbreaking that really involved the community... He’s really taken to the heart building the client experience beyond just customer satisfaction into building client ‘delight’.”
